ROBBIE BROOKS IS EASTER SEAL CHILD

Thirteen - year - old Robert "Robbie" Layne Brooks of Richmond, Va.'s 1977 Easter Seal Child, visited with Governor Mills E. Godwin, Jr., Wed., March 2, to present the governor with his 1977 Easter seals and to officially begin the Easter Seal Campaign in Virginia.

Robbie, who has cerebral palsy, was selected to represent all the children and adults in Virginia who receive Easter Seal Direct Services. He has been a familiar face at the Society's Camp Easter Seal in Craig County for the past three summers where he especially enjoys horseback riding and sharp shooting. He is the son of Mrs. Josephine Heath.

Support for the Virginia Easter Seal Society comes from public contributions with 90% of all income remaining in Virginia to maintain and provide direct service programs for children and adults with all types of handicaps through twelve Easter Seal centers and Camp Easter Seal. Last year over 2,000 people in Virginia received Easter Seal services such as speech therapy, physical therapy, educaiton, information and referral, counseling, purchase and loan of rehabilitative equipment.

Joining Bobbie in seeking support for the year-round Easter Seal programs are Mrs. Mills E. Godsin, Jr., honorary chairman, and Mrs. Suzanne T. Lacey of Falls Church, parents chairman.

The 1977 Easter Seal campaign continues until Easter Sunday, April 10.
